SENATOR I. L. LENROOT PLEADS FOR UNINSTRUCTED WISCONSIN DELEGATION TO THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

In a letter to Geo. A. West, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, Senator Lenroot writes:

"I sincerely hope that all of the list of uninstructed delegates will be elected Tuesday. They are men who, if elected, will use their own independent judgment for the best interests of the country and the party.

"Wisconsin can, if it will, have a large influence at the National Convention, but only if the delegates elected are known to be independent and not under the control of or subject to the dictation of any individual. The delegates should represent the will of the people electing them, not the will of some man not before the voters at this time. In other words, they should use their own judgment as to what is for the best interests of the people and not allow anyone to do their thinking for them.

"I have been informed that the placing of the onerous list of delegates in the field is the beginning of an organized fight to defeat me next fall at the primary. While the result of the delegate election will not necessarily affect the result of the September primary, I hope that my friends will not vote the ticket imported by my opponents, and thus encourage them.

"I hope to see a Republican candidate nominated who is Progressive, and also a Progressive platform adopted. If the uninstructed delegates are elected, they will really participate in the proceedings of the Convention and not merely stand at one side and criticize it. Wisconsin Republicans can best aid in securing such a candidate and such a platform by supporting the 'uninstructed' delegates."

Senator I. L. Lenroot.

These Delegates will not be under the control of any ONE man or FACTION.

Candidate for Alderman

Solicits your support at the Municipal Election April 6th.

To the Voters of The Third Ward

I have served the citizens of Janesville faithfully for the past two years as Alderman of the 3rd ward. I am asking for your indorsement, and feel that I am entitled to it, for the reason that I have worked for the best interest of Janesville, to the end that we can have a new High School, better wages for our teachers, and city employees, better streets, water and sewerage service and an up-to-date Janesville. If I am elected, I will use my best efforts to continue work to that end that has already been largely provided for by the present Council. I am asking the support of the voters of the third ward at Tuesday's election.

Voters of the Fifth Ward, Attention!

In reply to my opponent's article in Saturday Night's Gazette, will say, if the Ward Funds are all pooled in one, he as an Alderman, knowing how bad improvements were wanted in the Fifth Ward, should have used his influence to have some of this money spent in the Fifth Ward, unless other Ward Aldermen have more of a pull than he. How about this?

Next he says he had nothing to do with the flower garden in the center of Center Ave. for four blocks, and was against this, but this was recommended by the Parking Commission to the Council and the Council voted for it unanimously. This does not show he was against it when he voted with the rest of the Aldermen, but as far as I can learn was the promoter of this project to get rid of the milk teams on his side of the street.

Who looks after the Wards? The people's Aldermen or who?

I suppose an Alderman does, but the Fifth Ward has been very badly neglected.

The sidewalk approaching to the Monterey Bridge has been in such shape for the last year that it is dangerous to walk on them. A great many people have fallen, especially Blind Students, this last winter as the sidewalk has tipped to the back about 9 inches lower than in front. Who is to look after this? The planks in the sidewalk across Monterey Bridge are all loose and dangerous to cross. Who is supposed to look after these little things? What do we have an Alderman in a Ward for?

The streets of the Fifth Ward are in a deplorable condition and we have the name of having the poorest streets of any city in Southern Wisconsin. This should be remedied and an Alderman's business should be to look into these circumstances, but I do not think any of these little things have been looked into in the last two years, especially in the Fifth Ward, almost all work being done in other Wards.

If I am elected tomorrow, I will do what is in my power to right these wrongs and will give my time and attention to help build up the Fifth Ward and Janesville as it should be. I am

BUYING POWER—

This store affords you every opportunity to add volume to your buying power—"Through Quality."

Shoes of known QUALITY are not the expensive shoes as a great many people seem to think. The most expensive footwear you can buy today is that of inferior quality, shoes that are of an unknown make—the kind that are guaranteed only to the FRONT DOOR.

Buying shoes here assures you of the utmost satisfaction. Because we sell shoes only on the basis that you must always be satisfied before we are.

Our great buying volume enables us to sell you better shoes at no greater cost than you will pay for the cheaper grades. A comparison will bear out our statement.

Vote for Mrs. Fred Sutherland for School Commissioner at Large

A large number of our citizens urged me to be a candidate for School Commissioner-at-Large. I am sure they did this only because they thought it would be for the public good. Not one of them had any personal ambition or selfish purpose in asking me to stand for this office. The reasons they suggested persuaded me that it was my duty to become a candidate. Surely I am not simply seeking political office or preferment; but I am greatly interested in our public schools and am ready to do what is in my power for their good. On this basis I solicit the support of the voters. I believe I can be of service and if elected, I shall give to the performance of the duties of this office my best efforts and attention.

Weather Fails To Mar Joyous Observancy of Easter in All Churches

Despite the snow and chilling blasts of yesterday which made fur coats seem more appropriate than spring millinery, there were large attendances at services held in the various churches. Special Easter music, flowers and exercises given to the children were enjoyed by each congregation.

Members of St. Patrick's church were the earliest to offer their devotion, first mass being held at 6:15 and continuing with four masses in the morning and vespers at 7:30 in the evening. The United Brethren church held a sunrise meeting under the auspices of the senior C. E. society at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. H. Claxton being the leader of the meeting.

Children Have Mass
St. Mary's church held three masses in the morning beginning at 7:30. At the 9 o'clock mass more than 200 children joined in singing hymns. This service was arranged mostly for their benefit. The male choir and women's choir both sang special music.

The Sunday school exercises of the Christian church were held at 10 o'clock the chorists giving some special anthems, and Mrs. Frank Sadler singing solo. The primary department of 20 tiny tots gave an exercise, in which Margaret Howland sang the solo. This was in charge of Mrs. P. Sadler. Amelia Brown gave a recitation, "A Song of Easter"; Norma Van Antwerp, "A Little Sermon"; Margaret Zinke, "God is Good"; Thelma Van Antwerp, a solo; "A Gift to Jesus"; Margaret Luyke, "The Lilies of Eastertime." A dialogue of "The Resurrection" with a primary chorus, followed.

Prize Is Announced
A prize for an efficiency campaign which had been going on in the Bible school for three months was announced by C. K. Gillespie as going to the class of eight, Miss Alice Esther Moore being the winner. She was given a testament as a gift. In place of the regular sermon by the pastor, the pastor gave the exercises, and gave an address. Titles and white hyacinths were the decorations on the pulpit. The evangelistic campaign will continue throughout the present week with evening services at 7:30.

Children Give Program
A large white cross garlanded with ferns, quantities of white lilies, and potted white hyacinths formed the decorations at the Federated church. A children's program was the prelude to the regular church exercises. A song by the beginners which included 29 of the little ones, was in charge of Miss Emma Tonn. Mrs. J. A. Melrose, and Mrs. Charles Sutherland. A boys' class consisting of Robert Palmer, Robert Langlo, Frederick Sutherland, Robert Monberger, Keith Patton and Allan Lovejoy told the life story of Jesus. They were directed by Miss Lenore Castford and Mrs. Allan Lovejoy. The rite of baptism was administered to Elizabeth Jane Bassford, Malcolm George Gestland, Mabel Geraldine Shaw, and George Hamilton Shaw.

Special Vesper Service
The pastor, Rev. J. A. Melrose, preached a sermon on "The Risen Life." A vesper service was given at 5 o'clock with special Easter music by the choir. Miss Margaret MacGulloch and Alfred Schuch sang a duet. A male quartet consisting of E. J. Clark, C. J. Smith, A. Schuch and T. Mead also gave a selection. The pulpit of the Methodist church was decorated with a large number of pots of white lilies given by members of the congregation as memorials for friends. The chorus choir of 40 people sang special music. The attendance was so large it necessitated opening the adjacent parlor. Rev. P. P. Lewis preached on "Life Everlasting." Three women, Inez Evelyn Waters, Elizabeth Alice Nickel, and Alta Geske were baptized.

An Easter cantata, "The Risen King" was given in the evening. Mrs. S. P. Richards and Mrs. H. H. Edwards sang solos. A women's trio under direction of Miss Florence Snyder and mens' chorus had prominent parts. Rollo Dolan played "Ave Maria" as an offertory.

Baptist Choir Gives Cantata
At the Baptist church, decorations of the pulpit were baskets and pots of spring flowers. Rev. R. G. Pierson gave the sermon "The Easter Message," and Allan Dunwiddie gave a four minute talk on the New World movement. At four o'clock the vesper service was given, the choir singing an Easter cantata. "The Resurrection" under the direction of Mrs. A. Schaller. Several of the recitative parts were given by David Drummond, and solos were sung by Miss Lorena Eller, Alfred Olsen and Miss Olive Pope. The C. H. Hackett was the four minute speaker of the afternoon session.

The Trinity Episcopal church held communion services at 7 and 8

EVANSVILLE LOOKS FOR QUIET ELECTION

[By Special Correspondent.]
Evansville, April 12.—(The local election tomorrow promises to be a rather quiet affair. The retiring aldermen are up without opposition, except W. V. Gillies. There being no regular nominees for assessor, the third warders are presenting G. L. McCoy for that office.

Friends here have received word from Mr. and Mrs. John Stair, Melrose Park, stating that they escaped injury in the storm of a week ago. Some of the windows of their home were blown in. One of the houses just back of their home was totally wrecked.

Clyde Fisher was down from Madison to spend yesterday with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Van Wormer, were Sunday guests at the W. D. Brown home.

The out of town men who attended the Knights Templar Easter service here yesterday were A. E. Matheson, Fred Howe, P. Vailon, John Lloyd, and A. Hodge, Janesville; P. B. Lowry and Fred Anderson, Footville; and W. Lewis, Albany.

Mrs. Clara Baker and Mrs. Leon Patterson and little daughter, Green Bay, have arrived here. Mrs. Baker will stay all summer, and Mrs. Patterson and daughter will spend some of weeks with relatives and friends here and in Janesville.

Miss Cleo Scott returned to Madison yesterday after spending several days with her parents.

Keith Patterson came home from Marquette college last Friday to spend a few days with relatives and friends. He returned this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Matheson and daughter, Miss Marion, visited Mrs. Annie Green and family yesterday afternoon.

John Scott and family will move into the house on Main street, which they recently purchased, next Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank West have returned from Rice Lake, where they have been visiting for a few days.

Heart and Home Problems

LETTERS MAY BE ADDRESSED TO Mrs. Thompson, In Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My husband was killed in France. When I learned of his death I gave up housekeeping and went to live with my parents. I have a 19-year-old sister who lives at home who is the most selfish girl I have ever seen. She doesn't do one thing to help around the house. I have my baby to care for, the housework to do, since my mother is almost an invalid, and the family sewing.

Don't think I am complaining about my lot. I feel fortunate to be able to pay father in some little way for all he is doing for me and will do for my child. Sister is a constant worry to both father and mother. They reason with her, but it does no good. She brings quarrels home to father without saying anything beforehand and does not even do the dishes to help.

Father thinks that the way my sister acts helps to keep mother poor in health, but he doesn't know what to do. Sister also spends more money than any of the rest of us. I think she ought to go to work, but mother won't listen to it.

Don't you think sister ought to go to work?

It seems to me that it would be good for your sister to hold a position where she will have to work. Since your mother objects, however, it is out of the question.

Another way which would probably be even more effective than office work would be for your father to let her have a conditional allowance. If she does certain things she will receive money from him, but not otherwise. Unless this allowance is large enough to cover clothes the cure will be of little benefit. If a girl is free to buy all the clothes she wants, she usually cares little for other spending money.

Your sister's selfishness will lead to great unhappiness for herself unless it is curbed.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I love a certain girl—maybe I am too young to say love. She has moved from this town with her family. I was one of her classmates for four years and I liked to sit and look at her as I thought she was the only girl in the world I really cared for. I think about her all night.

Her parents were rather particular and did not want her to associate with boys and so I never went with her except to see her to school. I now see my mistake by not trying to go with her when it would have made me happy.

Since I have never been with her, I think it improper to write her. She might think I was not much by writing to her after she leaves and not going with her here. Would you write or not?

INQUISITIVE.

Write to the girl. To do so would not be but the way in the least. She will probably be very glad to hear from you and will not consider the fact that you did not go with her when you were in the same town.

GOLDLOCKS.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in love with a man 10 years my senior. I am only 16 but he says he will wait for me until I am 20. Do you think the difference in our ages is too great to have a happy home?

You are too young to think about love. In four years time there is little chance that you will care for the man you think you love now. Do not become engaged. Ask him to be your friend without speaking of love for at least two years longer. In that time go with other young men too.

"F. S.": Your education is too limited for you to take an engineering course at present. Enter a tool or machine shop and tell the foreman that you want to work in the drafting room. Attend night school and study English.

AUTOBIOGRAPHY—14

I never won a prize or even honorable mention at a baby show or better babies contest, because father preferred to leave that sort of thing to others, as he did not believe that the measurements and figures which feature such contests are of more than trifling interest.

I had my data, however, same as any kid. They were so nearly ideal in all respects that dad declared I might be died as standard with the Bureau of Weights and Measurements at Washington. Speaking of data, and once referred to them in a book, and a Kentucky woman wrote and asked him if he would please suggest a good remedy for her nine-month-old baby who (the Kentucky woman put it that way) seemed to have them, for all she said was "Dad! Dad! De-tu!" all day long. Father assured the lady that the little one would outgrow it in time.

I weighed 7½ pounds when I was born, lost nearly a pound the first five days, then began to gain until I again weighed 7½ pounds when I was two weeks old. From that on, I gained about a pound a week until I was nearly four months old, and after that I gained more slowly, perhaps a pound a month. At four months I weighed 13½ pounds, at six months I weighed 16 pounds, and when I was a year old I weighed 21½ pounds. On my second birthday last week I tipped the scales at 28 pounds, about a pound better than the average two-year-old, according to father.

I was 21½ inches long when I was born and 29 inches tall when a year old, and 32½ inches tall when two years old.

measuring just half an inch less than my head from birth until my second year. On my second birthday, in fact, the circumference of my head and of my chest and of my abdomen was the same, 15½ inches.

All in all it was a pretty sound infant. As I look back on my early life, from the eminence of my present pair of years, I am willing to concede that much.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Please tell me whether low heels cause flat feet. I wear low heels all the time and sandals much of the time when on vacation in the summer and I have been informed that they cause flat feet. (Miss D. I. B.)

ANSWER:—Low heels never do cause flat feet. Low heels never do.

The Old Tuberculosis. Is tuberculosis an inherited condition? Does one with lung tuberculosis ever get entirely well? (E. B.)

ANSWER:—Tuberculosis is never inherited, but always acquired by prolonged or frequent intimate contact with one ill of the disease, or by taking tubercle bacilli into the system in milk from cows not tuberculin tested. In either case, the disease may remain dormant or latent for several years, in fact it may never become active.

Lung tuberculosis is the most curable chronic disease of a serious character, provided it is recognized and early treated—not when it is allowed to become "weak lungs," "bronchial trouble," "heavy cold," "George."

HOME MADE ICE CREAM
Put one quart milk and one small can of evaporated milk together in a double boiler. When this is heated until there is a little scum over the top, mix in the following:

One large can granulated sugar into which one level tablespoon of four has been mixed while dry. Also add two whole eggs, well beaten, and one teaspoon of vanilla.

It is well to add the eggs and vanilla while the mixture is still cold or when first put on the fire.

Cook until smooth and no lumps. Cool and freeze.

these subjects as well as concerning the working conditions, employment, welfare and morale of the personnel employed by the army. In other words, the new office is practically that of director of personnel of the women employees of the army and the nature of the work will be very much the same only on a much larger scale as that done by such directors in factories.

STATE FARM FOR WOMEN A SUCCESS
The State Farm for Women in Connecticut, an institution which deals not at all with punishment, but entirely with reform, is proving a success according to all reports.

Any delinquent woman who has attained the age of 16 may be sent to the farm for any offense except murder. Those who are committed to the farm go there for three years, but at the end of one year they may be put on parole if they seem fitted to re-enter society. Each woman who goes to the farm is treated as an individual, separate from all the rest, and is carefully studied. She soon learns that she is among friends, and after this, in most cases, it is not hard to get her to stop talking and thinking of herself, and to enter into the normal life of her surroundings.

The farm is worked, both within and without doors, by the women, only the heaviest ploughing being done by men. There is great demand for outdoor work among the women, and even the girl who tends the pigs and gives them weekly baths in her enthusiasm, is considered luckier than the one who is doing dish-washing.

There is no discriminating line drawn between the different classes of offenders. Segregation takes place only of the women employed by the army and all live together like a large family. The officers' room is no more attractive than the room of the inmates, this being on a farm and close to nature for the first time is proving to be the one thing needed for a complete reformation.

TAILLEUR SUIT IS SMART FOR SPRING

By ELOISE.

The business girl and the woman of means are two people who always have a tailored suit in their respective wardrobes. That fact is recommendation enough for any garment. The tailored suit, however, needs no recommendation and needs no advertising. No matter how elaborate and decorative the suits of each new season may be, the shops always carry a stock of the tailored suit, there will be a goodly number of women who will wear a strictly tailored suit to the Easter devotional services. In fact the number of women who favor the tailored suit seems to be over on the increase.

Here is a very nobby suit which is not strikingly mannish, but which shows exquisite tailoring. It is fashioned of navy blue (ricotine). The skirt is plain with a narrow belt

And the Memory-Man said: A long time ago, in Ireland, there was a priest going to visit a sick man and some foreign robbers set upon him and beat him and carried him away, for they were afraid lest his piety should see him lying there. And the little silver box in which he carried the sacrament fell from his neck in that beating and was left lying on the ground unopened.

And, after a while, some bees came by that way. And they carried the little crumbs of the sacrament to their own hive, and they built, all of pure white wax, a chapel for it, and an altar, and set two bees to watch over it every day and two bees every night.

But the priest, some days afterwards, when he had recovered from the beating, went to look for what he had lost. Then the bees showed him the little chapel and the priest related that the bees had been so kindly and reverent.

Goodness is often found in the most unexpected places.

KERNEL OF CORN, STUCK IN CHILD'S THROAT CAUSES DEATH

Kenosha.—A kernel of corn, which lodged in the throat of the 3-year-old daughter of John Hasenmann, near here, caused the child's death. Four weeks after the grain was swallowed, the child was seized with a fit of coughing and died in her mother's arms. A postmortem examination revealed the corn in the throat.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

BY PHILIP

IS LINDSEY IN LOVE WITH A MAN, OR WITH LOVE? Dear me, I know that I am not alone in being engaged. I seem to feel it as much as time goes on. I even take an acute interest in watching my tressouss grow, and I never do before the other day in the park. Why, I spent all this morning picking out the loveliest creations, without the least bit of resentment.

And would you believe it that I hummed songs all the time that I went from one shop to another, which is something new to me. I start out on a shopping trip. Goodness, if Jack loves me so much in my tailormade dress, he will certainly adore me in some of those filmy negligees that I have been buying. I feel quite immodest somehow or other, when I find myself deliberating over the relative beauty or merits of flesh-colored chiffons and silks.

One simply has to face things, however, and Jack will like me in pale green and coral, all the time that I am selecting my "pretties," just as much as I am worrying how much one marries a man and not oneself. So there you are. It is the husband who will see and hear of my tressouss, and not oneself.

How I laughed when dear Aunt Cecilia told me with many blushes that there were dreams worked into every rose-bud and stitch in her tressouss! Did I dream then of the lofty heights that I had placed and set-in pockets which will barely hold a handkerchief. The coat is unbecomingly belted with the belt, the white stock is worn to complete the outfit, but on warmer days it will be more comfortable to wear a collarless blouse with a vest.

BOY SCOUTS TO HAVE WORKING FUND OF $4,000

Appleton.—A fund of $4,000 will soon be available for work among Appleton boys as a result of a Scout Council of 40 men was elected and plans made for a financial campaign. A scout executive who will devote all his time to work among the boys is to be engaged at once. Appleton now has five scout troops with a membership of about 200 boys, but it is proposed to increase the number to 1,000 within the next few weeks.

NEW YORK.—Foreign war widows, who are pensioners of their own governments and other industrial projects, mostly constituting the largest part of immigrants now coming to America. Emigration is made up of former parliamentarians, the inter-racial council announced.

LETTERS OF A CITY KAT

Dear Mother:

I hope you won't feel hurt when you learn that I am never coming back to the country. I know it violates all the fine old folk traditions to leave home but I think it is time for young lady-cats to make their own way in the world.

I have a place with a respectable family in an uptown flat building and I am sure that I will be happy.

Before I had hardly got out of my travelling basket I had a piece of luck. A quarter chicken from the moving-man's lunch. Misow, but it was good.

— And this place has one of the six best cellars I have ever seen. The rats are all nervous and scary but have little spirit. I look forward to a pleasant summer.

With love to your husbands, including my father, and the little,

Sallie.

P. S. I have just met a charming cat from apartment one. His name is Tom, but don't worry, I intend to live my own life.

I CANNOT REFUSE.

The year's at the ending,

The day's at the noon,

Morning's at seven,

The hillside's dew-pearled,

My hat's in the ring,

As sure as you're born

I'll win God's in heaven!

All's right with the world.

2500 FANS EXPECT TO SEE CARDS AND NORTHERNS BATTLE

Twenty-five hundred northern fans are on edge this week for the state title semi-pro basketball game which will be played at Fond du Lac Saturday between the Lakota Cardinals of this city and the Northern Paper Mills of Green Bay.

The Coliseum floor at Fond du Lac has been secured for the contest. It is said to be the largest playing floor in the state outside of the gym floor at Madison university. The seating capacity is 2,500.

Special Trains Chartered. Green Bay has chartered a special train to carry 500 buses to the seat of war. Arrangements are expected to be made for a special to be made up at Janesville to make the trip north and back again on the same day.

Every effort is being made by both teams to gather an aggregation together that will put forth the greatest basketball battle seen in Wisconsin in many years. The winner of the game will take temporary hold of the state title and will be challenged to its right to hold it by Fogarty's team of Fond du Lac.

Two games have already been played in the series which stands one all.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING FORMS
CLOSE ONE DAY IN ADVANCE OF PUBLICATION.

Several advertising reasons have made it necessary to place classifieds on a day-in-advance basis, which means that all classified advertising should be in the Gazette Office one day in advance of publication.
We are sure everyone will appreciate the situation and cooperate to the best of his ability.

McCall Patterns give you New York and Paris fashions and with them it is easy for any woman to make her clothes and her children's clothes at savings that are more than worth-while.

At this period we formally display the newest and most fashionable weaves the silk, cotton and fabric markets have to offer.

It is one thing to indulge in sweeping promises and quite another to be specific and definite. Today, in this page ad inaugurating our big Home-Sewing Week we submit prices and we show how it is possible with the aid of a McCall Pattern and a little of your time to produce beautiful garments breathing the refinement of Paris at tremendous savings. This is the time that the question of Spring and Summer clothes are uppermost in your mind, and the problem of ways and means of providing what you need and want presses for solution. This Home-Sewing Week will solve the problem.

Material For Summer Blouses Here in Profusion

While Georgette is easily the most popular material for the dressy blouse, and we are showing a wonderful variety of both plain and figured Georgettes, still we have a beautiful showing of Crepe de Chines, pongees, satin, figured voiles and a variety of suitable cotton material.

By making these blouses with the aid of a McCall Pattern it will be possible for you to have so many more blouses for what you would ordinarily spend for one blouse ready-to-wear.

GEORGETTE BLOUSE No. 9381

Requires 1½ yards of plain Georgette at $2.95 a yard and four silk tassels at 75c each. This blouse can be made for $7.68, and this is easily one-third of what it would cost you, would you buy it ready-to-wear. McCall Pattern No. 9381, 25c.

CREPE DE CHINE OVERBLOUSE No. 9415

This is one of the latest slip-on models, lacing at the belt. It requires 2½ yards of flesh, beige or French blue Crepe de Chine at $2.95 a yard and three yards of novelty grosgrain ribbon for lacing at 20c a yard. McCall Pattern No. 9415, 25c. This overblouse can be made for less than $10. Compare it with anything you can buy ready-to-wear for twice that amount.

DRESS BLOUSE NO. 9277

This is a very handsome model for a dressy blouse with Chemise. It requires one yard of 36-inch Messaline at $2.35 a yard, and ¼ yard of net for the vest at $1.00 a yard. McCall Pattern No. 9277, 25c. This very attractive blouse can be produced for $5.45. It requires a very little time to make.

OVERBLOUSE NO. 9415

Another slip-on model that is very attractive requiring 1½ yards of Taffeta at $3.75 a yard and two tassels at 75c each, McCall's Pattern No. 9415, 25c. This blouse can be produced for $9.15 if you will make it yourself.

PONGEE SPORT BLOUSE NO. 9416

This is a very popular model for the outdoor girl, requires 1½ yards of Silk Pongee at $2.00 a yard; ½ yard of Brown Messaline for the collar and tie at $2.35 a yard. McCall Pattern No. 9416, 25c; and this beautiful Sport Blouse can be made for less than $6.00.

The "Cordica" Sports Coat

has only one seam, can be made in 1½ hours time from 2½ yards of 27-inch material. You can produce a beautiful coat with material from our dress goods stock for from $7.50 to $10.00. Isn't this wonderful saving worth while? We will be glad to demonstrate this pattern for you. McCall Pattern No. 9435, 25c.

Foulards and Saris Used in Combination are Very Popular

LADIES' TUNIC DRESS No. 9377

Requires 2½ yards of figured foulard for the blouse and tunic at $3.95 a yard, 2 yards of plain Satin Messaline for underskirt, cuffs and vest at $2.95 a yard, McCall Pattern No. 9377, 25c. It is possible to make this dress at home for $16.00 and when you are finished with it you will agree with us that it will be worth several times this amount of money.

AFTERNOON FROCK No. 9347

This is a reproduction of a wonderful model and it is very charming when made from 4 yards of black costume satin at $3.95 a yard, a black silk cord girdle at $1.50, McCall Pattern No. 9347, 25c, and with a little of your time you can reproduce this beautiful model from Paris for $16.55.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

We doubt very much if our stocks of dress goods will be as large and complete again this season as at the inauguration of this sale, and prices have been specially reduced to start a season of home-sewing that will mean economy and thrift.

McCall Patterns are style-right, they fit right, and they are easy to use. For more than 50 years American women have been making their clothes gold-McCall Patterns.

Ladies' Eaton Dress No. 9399

This design requires 3½ yards of 46-inch Navy Blue French Sergé at $2.75 a yard, ½ yard of Black Satin Messaline for the front blouse section at $3.75 a yard, 1 piece of Soutache braid for the embroidery, 40c, and you have a Châlet model for the surprisingly low cost of about $12.89. McCall pattern No. 9399, 25c; embroidery pattern No. 1022, 25c.

Ladies' Raglan Dress No. 9402

This very attractive model requires 3½ yards of 38-inch Raguet Cloth at 69c a yard. McCall Pattern No. 9402, 25c, the total cost of everything necessary to make this dress will not exceed $4.75.

Ladies' Gingham Dress With Chemise No. 9397

Requires 4½ yards of Imported Scotch Gingham at $1.25 a yard with ¾ yards of Organdie for Chemise at 75c a yard; McCall Pattern No. 9397, 25c. You can make this charming Gingham Gown for less than $5.75.

Percales, Chambrays and Gingham are best adapted for slip-on overalls, dress aprons and tie-on house dresses. It is possible for you to make these garments at home at a tremendous saving by visiting our piece-goods department and securing your material during this sale. McCall Patterns for any of the above numbers are 25c.

McCall Patterns for Children are Always Attractive

During Home-Sewing Week you will find that we have made especially attractive prices on gingham, chambray, poplins, and voiles.

Little Girl's Coat of Broadcloth No. 9154

This 8-year model requires 1½ yds. of chiffon broadcloth at $4.95 a yard, 2½ yards of figured sateen for lining at $1.50 a yd. McCall Pattern No. 9154, 25c. For $12.50 the little lady's Spring wardrobe can be greatly beautified by this charming Spring coat.

Little Girl's Gingham Dress No. 9155

8 years size, requires 3½ yards of 27-inch gingham at 45c a yard, ½ yard of poplin for collar and revers, McCall Pattern No. 9155, 25c. The little lady will have a beautiful dress for less than $2.40.

Little Girl's Dress No. 9379

Very charming when made of 3 yards of 27-inch Poplin at 75c a yard, embroidered in a contrasting shade of delit blue and a ribbon sash and this admirable frock for any 5-year old Miss can be made for $3.00 including McCall Pattern No. 9379 at 25c.

Subscribe today for McCall's Magazine! This is your last chance to secure it at $1.00 a year. On April 15th McCall's Magazine advances its subscription price from $1.00 to $1.50 a year. Don't delay in subscribing to America's most popular magazine for the home. For 50 years American women have relied on its fashions.

Quite in line with our principle of providing things that are most wanted at the lowest possible prices we have inaugurated this important sale which comprises everything in it for making the Spring and Summer wardrobe, inside and out. It is an event worth while as the offering on this page will show. And never since women commenced to use the needle has it been possible to pay yourself as big a salary for making your own clothes. In the majority of cases by making your clothes the garment will not cost more than one-third of the price ready-made.

Home-Sewing Week Should Mean a New Coat or Suit for You

Our showing of materials for coats and suits for Spring and Summer is most extensive and we urge you not to let home-sewing week pass without planning a new coat or suit, as perhaps there is no other article of your wearing apparel on which the saving will be so marked.

The materials particularly suitable this season are wool velours, polo cloth, wool chevron, Scotch tweed, storm serges and a host of other fabrics. Below we give you an idea of the cost of making these three charming models.

Raglan Coat No. 9166

This is a general utility coat, one absolutely indispensable to the wardrobe. Requires for size 38, 3½ yards of 54-inch wool velour, costing $6.50 a yard; McCall Pattern No. 9166, 25c. This garment can be made at home for $23.00 and it would be a difficult matter to secure its equal ready-to-wear for twice this amount.

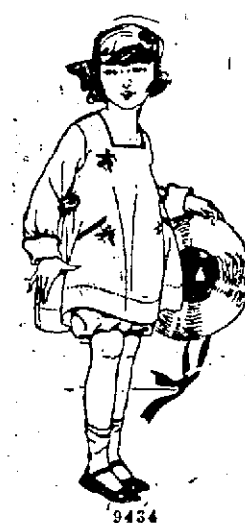

Ladies' or Misses' Sport Coat No. 9354

This sport coat is one of the most popular models of the season and for 36-inch length can be made of 2½ yards of 54-inch polo cloth at $6.25 a yard; McCall Pattern No. 9354, 25c. You can easily make this coat for about $17.36 and it is unnecessary for us to point out to you that you can credit yourself with at least $20 for the work, as that amount only partly represents your saving.

Ladies' Sport Suit No. 9375-9367

This suit is adapted for so many uses that every woman's wardrobe should contain at least one suit of this model. Made from all wool outing tweed 54 inches wide it requires 3½ yards of material at $3.95 a yard, and the lining for the coat requires 2½ yards of figured sateen at $1.50 a yard; McCall Pattern No. 9375 25c coat, 9367 25c skirt. You can produce this model for about $18.00 and you are sure of the correctness of the style when you use a McCall Pattern. You are sure of the material when you buy it from our piece-goods department.

The Linen Division Contributes to Home-Sewing Week

What is more charming for little girls than dress linen? We are showing a very superior quality 45 inches wide at $1.25 a yard. LITTLE GIRLS' DRESS, No. 9434

Can be made from 3 yards of 45-inch Linen at $1.75 a yard. This model closes on the shoulders, has bloomers, buttoning to the underbody. McCall Pattern No. 9434, 25c. This all linen dress can be produced for $5.50.

We suggest that you ask to see samples of our mercerized batiste from which you can reproduce this garment for $2.30.

Big Savings Can Be Effected by Making Shirts for your Men Folks

We are showing madras, percales, gingham and a wonderful variety of silk shirtings, and with the assistance of a McCall Pattern you will find it easier to make a shirt than a shirt-waist. McCall shirt patterns are designed for men; plenty of room, a delightful sense of freedom, and the saving will be a revelation to you.

MEN'S SHIRT No. 5645

Comfortable men's shirt for summer can be made from 3½ yards of Mercerized Pongee at 59c a yard, McCall Pattern No. 5645, 20c. This shirt can be made at home for $2.25 and it would cost twice this amount in any haberdasher shop.

MEN'S SHIRTS No. 7909.

With pockets and collar attached. This a great shirt for playing golf, for hunting and for out-door life. Can be made of either flannel for heavy wear, or Madras for office wear. Requires 3½ yards of 36-inch material. McCall Pattern No. 7909, 20c. This shirt can be made at home for about $3.00 to $5.00, according to material. Ask for samples of our material and compare them with the shirt ready-to-wear and you will see the enormous saving.

BOYS' SHIRT BLOUSE No. 6420

Adjustable collar with or without yoke. For eight-year size requires 2 yards of 36-inch percale at 50c a yard. McCall Pattern No. 6420, 15c. You can make this garment at home for less than $1.50.
